How the Conkling Interview Came About—The Interviewer.

Several years ago Ellis H. Roberts, editor of the Utica Herald, who had been on intimate personal and political terms with Conkling, came to Congress from Conkling's old district, and while here quarreled with the young Senator. Their personal relations not only ceased, but the Herald soon afterwards began to attack Conkling, and has kept up the fire on him ever since. Not long ago a Conkling organ was started in Utica, the Republican, and a journalist named Mines, of New York, was employed as the editor, or one of the editorial writers. With him Conkling made free, often inviting him to his house and telling him at every opportunity the condition of affairs in Washington, as seen through the Conkling glasses. This gave the editor themes to write upon and hints as to the policy of the paper. Mines carefully noted these points and laid them away in his vest pocket, taking particular pains not to miss anything of a personal or sensational character. His opportunity to use them came at last. For getting on a spree in New York he was discharged from the paper. After getting over his headache and steadying his nerves, he set about preparing the interview, and a paper in New York was found willing to print it and pay for it. This is the whole story.

They knew something about John F. Mines, the fellow who got up the Conkling interview for the New York World, down in Connecticut. He used to be an Episcopal clergyman, "was a sort of a chaplain for some of the three-months troops, and went about Bull Run on horseback, carrying a good-sized flag in a comical way." He left the ministry for drunkenness, turned lecturer and then Bohemian, till finally he got on Conkling's newly-established organ at Utica and stayed till he got into trouble on account of his habits.—New York Cor. Philadelphia Times.

An Accommodating Bishop.

When Leo XIII. was first made a bishop he learned that a priest in one of the parishes of his diocese was in the habit of going off hunting every Sunday. This priest was very attentive to his duties all the six days of the week, but Sunday he took as a veritable holiday. So one Sunday Bishop Pecci went to the priest's residence. Of course he did not find the priest at home. He asked if he might be allowed to celebrate mass in the church, and was told that he could do so most certainly; indeed, they said they would be very glad if he would, as the people always came on Sunday for mass and went away disappointed. No one knew it was the Bishop. After mass the priest's servants asked him to leave his name for their master. To the great surprise of every one, the card the unknown visitor left had on it the name of the bishop of the diocese. The priest instantly went to Bishop Pecci, full of penitence, expecting a good, sound reprimand for his negligence. "Hunting is no sin," said the bishop, calmly. "Only when ever you wish to go hunting on Sunday, be sure and let me know, and I will come over and say mass for you." The priest never went hunting on a Sunday after that effectual reprimand.

It is getting so that a Washington mother is afraid to take a girl baby out in the streets for an airing, lest some venerable old Congressman with eleven married children and twenty-two grandchildren, should marry the little innocent.

The Graphic suggests that in naming the newly invented phonographic speaking trumpet to be mounted on the statue of liberty in the harbor, a distinguished American lady correspondent be honored by calling it "Gallophone."

A school inspector, in talking to an infant class, used the word abridge, and immediately explained that as some of them might not know the meaning of the word, he would say that it was a synonym of the word epitome.

Allchin is the ominous name of a Bangor theological student.

Mrs. A. T. STEWART.—There is an extraordinary rumor about town which comes to me from the lips of a grave gossip as an Episcopal clergyman, who is indeed not a gossip at all, and believes the story to be true. It is that Mrs. Alexander Stewart proposes to marry again, and that the prospective bridegroom is a clergyman who has been in charge of the yet unfinished Cathedral at Garden City. This, as you will remember, is a superb church, built somewhat in the form of a tomb, which is to serve at once as the Cathedral of the Diocese of Long Island and a monument of Mr. Stewart. The plan is one of which there would have been no objection, if the Cathedral had been fixed at some point in New York or Brooklyn, where it might have been a noble ornament to a great city, but it has been planted in a barren plain, ten miles back of Brooklyn, where Mr. Stewart was trying to build up a suburban city of cheap homes. The story excites some little astonishment, because Mrs. Stewart must be between 70 and 75 years of age. Mr. Stewart would have been nearly seventy-five if he had lived, and Mrs. Stewart was said to be almost his age. The alleged bridegroom, so to speak, is almost 45.—N. Y. Cor. Cincinnati Gazette.

The Sultan and the Grand Duke Nicholas died together the other day. About the third bottle they stood up, clasped hands and simultaneously proposed the sentiment, "Our country and her victorious armies."

"Well, I swan, Billy," said an old farmer to an undersized nephew who was visiting him, "when you take off that 'ere plug hat, and spit two or three times, there ain't much left of you, is th'?"

Dr. Mary Walker wants a hen with spurs two inches long, to supplant the eagle with the dexterity tremors on the silver dollar.

Fine printing paper is now made from the white ends of asparagus. It will not be so unpleasant to eat one's own words as it used to be.

PLEDGING CANDIDATES.

The Sacramento Bee is in favor of pledging candidates for office, and especially candidates for the Constitutional Convention, and wants every man put down in black and white. It is well known that such a suggestion only meets with opposition among politicians. The fact that honest men dislike pledges is strange, and that a politician should hesitate is phenomenal. The latter class earn an honest livelihood by making pledges, and it seems strange that they should even wait for a moment before adopting. It may be supposed that they are cherishing a tradition of their own honesty in times past, but the supposition that any such musty tradition induces action is hardly tenable. The remembrance of that day has gone to keep elect represented the people. Every company with the day when the officers politician who comes before the people in these times deems himself either an incipient dictator, or one who has a knack of carrying votes against popular sentiment. The hackneyed idea that he is seated for the good of the people is one of the "purer day notions" at which he smiles and frowns by turns. He may consent to the popular will during the prevaricating season, but in harvest time he turns out a vote merchant, as usual—general jobbing a specialty.

It is not, then, necessary to pledge the honest man, except against association with the dishonest, while it is certainly not effective to pledge the politician against following his trade. We will therefore declare right here in favor of the Bee, and, going a step farther, endorse the gallant Dennis who has provided hemp for traitors. Upon all leading issues pledge your candidates, and especially upon the the passage of a law condemning political felons to imprisonment.

There are perhaps honest politicians in each State, and these we would not offend. If the one in Nevada will forward his name it shall have publication.

ANOTHER INDIAN SCRAMMAGE.

Sitting Bull is getting very hungry up in Canada, and says that if he must die he wants to draw his last breath while feeding upon government rations. This venial scalp-taker is nothing, if not politic. No sooner does that $4,000,000 appropriation pass than he longs for the flesh pots of the Yellowstone. The news of increased emigration to the Black Hills has also promised him more amusement, and he pines for a shot at a Deadwood alderman once more. The Democratic Congress has, under the influence of an intelligent lobby, fixed the army so that Bull can enjoy his old-time amusement without hindrance, and the prospect looks favorable to him for a summer campaign about Chicago. We miss thee at home, Bull. Yes indeed.

SAVAGE AND SUTRO.—The Gold Hill News of yesterday says:

Adolph Sutro, of tunnel fame, and General Thomas H. Williams, President of the Savage Mining Company, met by appointment at the savage office in Virginia, this forenoon, for the purpose of discussing questions and points relative to the Sutro tunnel. They were unable to agree upon any basis for calculation, and nothing definite was accomplished. Mr. Sutro in a subsequent conversation with a News reporter, said: "The whole thing has gone to the devil. It is a matter of dollars and cents. The companies are not disposed to pay us what is right and we will take nothing less. We can make the connection with the Savage in two or three months." Mr. Sutro did not express any hope of making an amicable adjustment of the difference.

The Sacramento Bee says: The people are now thoroughly awake to the importance of the Constitutional Convention. Having no hopes of gaining by fusion, the Democratic committee refused to consummate the proposed bargain and sale. It is now probable that there will be two State Nominating Conventions, and there may be three. There is a demand for good men for candidates, but the people insist upon knowing what these supposed "good men" intend to vote for, and no man will be listened to until he defines his principles.

CALIFORNIA NOTES.

Contra Costa crops will be late, but good.

The coast counties will have an off year.

San Luis Obispo will increase her grain yield one third.

Tulare estimates an increase in her grain yield of 200,000 bushels.

The farmers of San Joaquin expect to draw $10,000,000 from their grain yield.

Stanislaus has three times as much acreage as last year.

The producers are very hopeful, having no fear of extensive frosts or blight.

Santa Cruz will produce corn, sugar beats and beans instead of its usual heavy crop of grain.

Reports from Napa, the highlands of Yolo and Solano, Sacramento, Sutter, Placer and Colusa counties are rose colored.

The fruit crop will be confined to the uplands where it will be unprecedentedly large.

The hay crop is already assured, and grass is being cut in vast quantities from the lowest valley to the snow line. The volunteer crops are immense and the farmers are compelled to mow their grain to enable them to plow their land for summer-fallowing. The San Diego region will have an extraordinary yield of barley, wheat, hay and semi-tropical fruits. About Santa Barbara the acreage sown in the cereals is at least one-fourth greater than last year, and the farmers expect to harvest from forty to sixty bushels to the acre. The Los Angeles district will produce vast quantities of barley, wheat, corn, rye, oats and peas. The hay crop from the native grasses will more than supply the wants of the stock.

False Mining Reports a Felony.

Following are the provisions of the law passed by the last California Legislature to prevent the circulation of false reports concerning the condition of mines whose stock is listed on the San Francisco stock boards:

Any superintendent, director, secretary, manager, agent or other officer of any corporation formed or existing under the laws of this State, or transacting business in the same, and any person pretending or holding himself out as such superintendent, director, secretary, manager, agent or other officer who shall willfully subscribe, sign, indorse, verify or otherwise assent to the publication, either generally or privately, to the stockholders or other persons dealing with such corporations or its stock any untrue or willfully and fraudulently exaggerated report, prospectus, account, statement of operations, value, business, profits, expenditures, or prospects, or other document intended to produce or give, or having a tendency to produce or give to the shares of stock in such corporation a greater value or less apparent or market value than they really possess, or with the intention of defrauding any particular person or persons, or the public, or persons generally, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the State Prison or a county jail not exceeding two years, or by fine not exceeding $5,000, or by both; provided that this Act shall be construed to apply only to corporations whose capital stock has been or shall hereafter be listed at a Stock Board or Stock Exchange in this State, or whose shares be regularly bought and sold in the stock market of this State.

It is I believe, Addison who remarks, that if all the thoughts which pass through men's minds were to be made public, the difference which seem to exist between the thinking of wise and unwise would be a good deal reduced; seeing that it is a difference which does not consist in their not having the same weak thoughts in common, but merely in the prudence through which the wise suppress the foolish ones. I still possess notes of the cogitations of those solitary evenings, ample enough to show that they were extraordinary combinations of the false and the true; but I at the same time hold them sufficiently in memory to remember that I scarce, if at all, distinguished between what was false and true in them at the time. The literature of almost every people has a corresponding early stage, in which free thinking is mingled with little conceits, and in which the taste is usually false but the feeling true.—High Miller.

The man who with no labor of his own has inherited a fortune, ranks higher in the world's esteem than his father who made it. We take rank by descent. Such of us who have the longest pedigree, and are therefore the furthest removed from the first who made the fortune and founded the family, we are the noblest. The nearer to the fountain the fouler the stream; and the first ancestor who has soiled his fingers by labor, is no better than a parvenu.—Froude.

Which is the best of trees? A straight fir. Why? Because it is straight.

Grant is in Italy.

TUESDAY NEWS.

The Senate has confirmed Robert A. Sidebotham as Secretary of Idaho Territory.

The Nashua and Merrimac rivers are rising at Manchester, and one-third of the mills are shut down.

A daughter of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, was privately married last week, to a Treasury Clerk named Handy, in Washington.

Postmaster-General Key says that the testimony of such scoundrels as McLin and Dennis, of Florida, ought to have no weight with the public.

Count Von Moltke, of Germany, who is visiting Copenhagen, is said to be negotiating a league between Denmark, Russia and Germany to close the Baltic.

The Central Committee to promote the negotiation of a commercial treaty with France has been organized, Senator Eustis being President, Sargent, Hill, Butler, Daves, Banks, Cox of Ohio, and others are members.

Clerk in the various government departments, thinking that Hayes' ideas on the subject had been modified, reorganized, in New York and Massachusetts, the State Associations to do political work during the coming Congressional elections. But they have been notified that the President's order is still in force and must, therefore, resign their membership in such organization.

The laugh of mirth that vibrates through the heart, the tears that freshen the dry waters within, the music that brings childhood back, the prayer that calls the future near, the doubt which makes us hesitate, the death which startles us with mystery, the hardships which forces us to struggle, the anxiety that ends in trust—are the true sources of our natural being.—Martineau.

BORN.

FIELDS—Near Hefner's, April 30th, 1878, to the wife of G. Fields—a daughter.

KINNEY—At Glendale, May 1st, 1878, to the wife of Rufus Kinney—a daughter.

Jottings.

Pierre Humbert was in town to-day.

Redewill, canvasser of A. L. Bancroft, is in town.

Charles Gulling has returned from San Francisco.

Manning & Duck received two carloads of flour to-day from California.

The Gazette is a very cheap paper and you ought to advertise in the 50-cent column.

Charley Thurston has been appointed by the School Trustees of this district, school census marshal.

A notice to all those who may be indebted to the late firm of Simpson & Osburn will be found in another column.

The Grand Opera House Combination troupe, present Uncle Tom's Cabin this evening at Smith's Academy of Music.

Dr. T. N. Snow has returned from Bodie, and will resume his medical practice in this burg as heretofore. Office in the International Hotel.

M. L. Yager is in our judgment, an excellent man for State Treasurer, but like all worthy men is modest, and will not hold himself a candidate provided the present incumbent aspires to that office.

JUST THE THING.—A neatly dressed man can take some comfort with himself and at the same time be favorably regarded by his friends. It is true economy to buy good clothing, and of a style in conformity with the prevailing patterns. The next question is, where shall one get, during these hard times, a good article of underwear, business or dress suit, which gives satisfaction in price and quality of goods? Messrs. Cohn & Isaacs, at the Branch White House, on Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice, is your place gentlemen. They have all the latest styles of men's and boy's clothing, and at all prices and sizes. Their stock is both large and complete. A man can go into their store and get a full outfit, hat, suit of outer and under wear, and boots or shoes as he may prefer. These gentlemen have just received a full stock of spring and summer clothing, and defy competition in their selling prices, as well as in the quality of goods which they sell. 4-28-78

MAY FAIR AND FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Congregational church are now holding a May Fair. Choice articles for sale, and entertainment with supper is the evening are the attractions offered. The ladies have taken much trouble to make the fair attractive, and we hope the number of visitors may be large. The fair will continue throughout to-day and tomorrow, May 1st and 2nd, including evenings.

OPENING PARTY.—In connection with the social dance to be given to next Friday evening at the Pollard house, we would say, by request of the landlord, that none but persons of respectable character will be admitted to this source. Of course Mr. Gibson will give a very pleasant party, one which is quite inexpensive and at the same time will prove entertaining.

WYOMING.

Mines, Indians, Yellowstone Park, etc. Views of an Old Resident.

From Mr. J. Hallahan, a former resident of Reno, and who is now on a visit to his brother at this place, we gather the following interesting facts and descriptions of the mines, Indians, etc. of Wyoming Territory:

The mines with which he is most familiar are those found in the Sweetwater District. The leading mine in this district is the Miner's Like, which is a gold-bearing quartz mine of great richness. Mr. H. showed us a collection of samples from this mine which are the richest we have ever seen. The quartz is of that translucent vitreous character, while the gold is almost profusely stored and held in a delicate embrace. This mine is divided into five shares but is not for sale. It is 100 miles from the nearest station on the U. P. R. R. Miners get $2.50 per day and board. Wood $3.50 per cord, and water abundant. There are a number of placer mines in this section, many of which are just now being developed.

INDIANS.

The Indians found in this section are not numerous or troublesome, but in the Big Horn region which he visited, he found it safest for a man to make his stay as short as possible. This Big Horn country is the home of the Sioux, a race of the best fighters on this continent. They are, for the most part, armed with Sharp's and Winchester's latest improved rifles, and are the best of marksmen. They ask no odds of the soldiers, while one redskin is regarded as more than a match for an Eastern soldier. Their mode of attack consists in forming a long line, and, mounted on their ponies, encircle the enemy, riding at full speed, and fire with almost unerring aim. They are well supplied and are in a country which abounds in game and has an abundance of wood and water. The difficulties arising between the Indians and the government is more complicated than most persons imagine, and the immense obstacles in the way of the government make it very politic for the United States to make terms with these wily and powerful Sioux if possible.

THE REGION OF THE YELLOWSTONE is the most magnificent section that he visited. There is every variety of scenery. Nature there scatters with a profuse hand her riches. Soil, climate, mountain, valley, forests, waters, parks, geysers, etc., etc. are there found on a grand and picturesque scale. By reason of the present imperfect facilities of egress and ingress with the head waters of the great Yellowstone river, this section lies exposed to the gaze of a few white men and Indians. Before a quarter of a century shall pass, the national park will eclipse any scenery in America.

"OUR BOYS."—Mr. Owens and support presented "Our Boys" to a very small house last night. This play was much better presented than "Solon Shingle" on the preceding evening. Owens is a host, and his acting drew more than merited applause very frequently during the evening from the audience. Financially speaking this troupe is somewhat unfortunate, but they are in California now and we wish them God speed with our unreciprocated bill. The managers, Messrs. Crosbie and Maeder, are gentlemen, but because of poor houses were placed in circumstances not more agreeable to themselves than several other parties residents of this fair town. So long "Shingles," and fare you well "Our Boys."

POISONED BY CANNED FRUIT.—The family of Mr. Fletter, formerly a conductor on the C. P. R. R. lately partook of some canned corn which was found to contain some injurious element which was rather dangerous. The mother and child were quite ill, but we are informed by Dr. Bergman that they are coming out all right.

DISSOLUTION.—The co-partnership existing between James Toombs, H. C. Toombs and W. M. Griffin has been dissolved, the two last retiring from the firm. James Toombs will carry on the business upon a strict cash basis.

POLITICAL.—The Ormsby county Democratic committee met last Saturday in Carson. We have not heard from either the Republican or Democratic committee of this county. Would it not be well for Washoe to be heard from sometime during May?

SADDLE ROCK.—This popular resort for picnics has always enjoyed a good name, and it was never better than at present. B. B. Baum is the proprietor and superintendent of the dining room and kitchen. He gives his immediate attention to every detail, and visitors may be assured of good treatment and good fare. Baum has had a large experience in this line, and will keep up his reputation at all events. Call on him, and if he is found wanting we will pay the bill.

CHANGE IN PROGRAMME.—In order to have a longer race, and one which will be all the more interesting, Mr. Norcross has so altered his race programme so that the trotting race shall occur on the 4th. This race will be, purse, $75; mile heats, 3 in 5, to harness; free for all horses in Washoe county that have never beaten three minutes; second horse to get $30.

REJECTED.—The 50-cent column has the following application for space, which is too severe on the male persuasion for continued insertion. "Wanted—a husband. A man that never gets mad; takes what his wife may cook for him, and never goes out to see a man between acts at the theater."

AUCTION SALE.—C. W. Jones advertises to-day an auction sale of furniture to take place on May 21st, 1878, at the old Reno Furniture Store, on Virginia street. Mr. Jones is assignee of H. Ward, bankrupt, and all goods not sold by May 21st, will be sold at auction without fail. Some choice bargains there for housewives.

A Remedy for the Eruption of Poison Oak, Ivy and Sumach.

Dr. S. A. Brown, U. S. N., Mare Island, California, believes that he has found a specific for the eruption caused by contact with poison oak, sumach, ivy, hushoo, cashew nut, etc. He writes: This specific is bromine. I have used it with the same unvarying success in at least forty cases. The eruption never extends after the first thorough application, and it promptly begins to diminish. Within twenty-four hours, if the application be persisted in, the patient is entirely cured. There is no pain attending its use, as from that or astringents. Of course, the epidermis peels off as after other treatment.

I use the bromine dissolved in olive oil, in emulsion, or in glycerine. The application with glycerine is painful, and, I think, possesses no advantage to compensate for the irritation. The strength of the solution is from ten to twenty drops of bromine to the ounce of oil, used by rubbing gently on the affected part three or four times a day, and especially on going to bed at night. You wash off the oil twice a day with castile soap.

The bromine is so volatile that the solution should be renewed within twenty-four hours of its preparation, as it will get out of a bottle, however well corked. It is best to stand the bottle on its corked end, in the intervals of application.

I have seen no publication of this treatment, and I, therefore, send you my experience with it, hoping to attract to it some little attention, and do the good which must result from its adoption.—Medical Record

A Boston paper says it is a curious fact, and one that is not generally known, that the late King of Italy was "by the strict law of succession the rightful King of England."

Losses Liberally Adjusted

And Promptly Paid.

HAVE YOUR PROPERTY INSURED IN The Home Mutual, a purely local institution, confining its operations to the Pacific States and Territories, thus avoiding the disastrous losses that are daily occurring in the large eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and which tend to drain from the resources of profitable districts to meet obligations maturing in unproductive sections.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!
ROMAINE GOLD.

SO EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS, it was first discovered in 1853, by the celebrated French chemist, M. B. De Dalinge, who manufactured it into jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Solid Gold. In 1873, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878.
